KENOSHA COUNTY INTERACTIVE MAPPING WEBSITE

Kenosha County Interactive Mapping website may have a plat of survey for residential properties that should be used when submitting a permit for any addition, accessory structure or driveway in the Village of Pleasant Prairie.

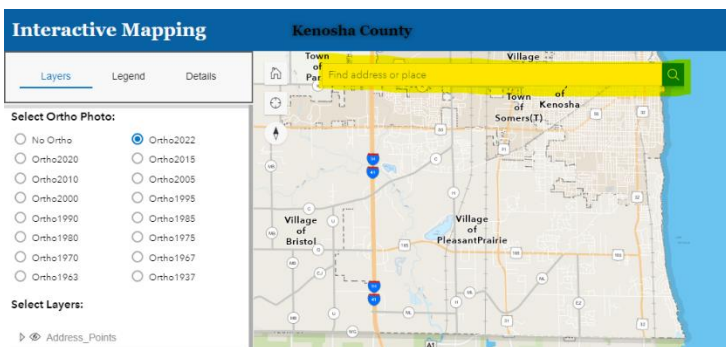

Use the plat of survey as the base map and draw the proposed structure, dimensions and required setbacks for your project to submit with your building and zoning permit application. Below are instructions to find a plat of survey for any property in Kenosha County.

STEPS TO FIND A SURVEY

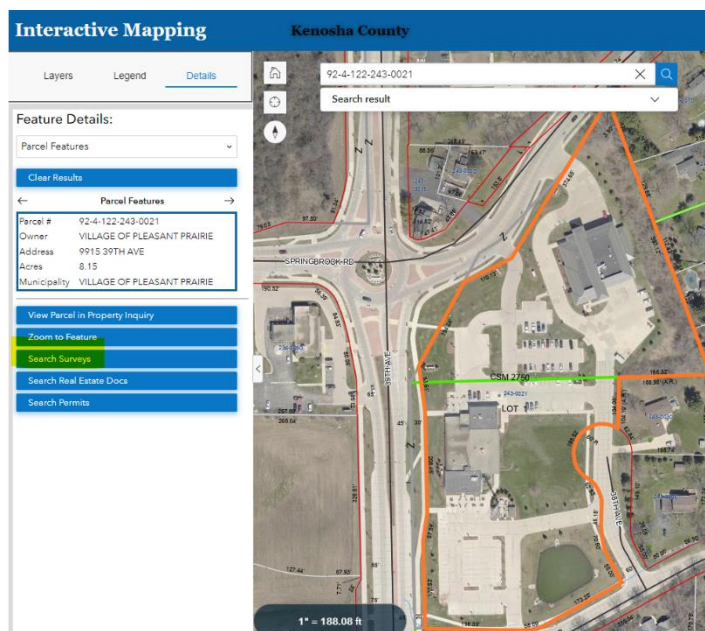

1. Click the link below to bring you to the Kenosha County website

<https://mapping.kenoshacountywi.gov/InteractiveMapping/>

2. Enter in your address in the Search bar, as shown below. If there is only a parcel number for the property, enter that number in the "Search by Parcel #" and select "Search Address" or "Search Parcel"

3. Once your property is shown within the map, go to "Search Surveys"

4. Any survey's on file for the property will show up similar to what is shown below. Select "View Survey" in order to pull up your survey for the corresponding survey.
