Students from LakeView Technology Academy Use Skills to Build Breach Door for Police and Fire Training

LakeView Technology Academy students Gable Schmidt and Will Berger engineered and built a breach door for use in public safety training.

LakeView Tech students Gable Schmidt (sophomore) and Will Berger (junior) recently designed and constructed a breach door at the request of the Pleasant Prairie Police Department. The two young men took the project on over and above their regular coursework. The door will be used for training by local police and fire and rescue departments.

The department has been looking into the purchase of a door for training purposes over the past few years but has encountered budgetary challenges. During the last budget phase, the department approached LakeView Technology Academy about the possibility of having students take the project on. KUSD instructor Eric Sutkay referred Gable and Will, "I knew they would be good students to take on a project of this caliber." Materials for the project were donated by Kolbe Windows & Doors (Wausau), Grunau Company (Oak Creek), and The Blast Shop (Kenosha).

Schmidt and Berger began working on the project in April and began testing the door in May. On Monday, June 5, the partners gathered for a final test, which was a success.

The Pleasant Prairie Police Department wishes to sincerely thank Gable Schmidt, Will Berger, Erik Sutkay, LakeView Technology Academy, Kolbe Windows & Doors, Grunau Company, and The Blast Shop for this amazing outcome. □

Citations Awarded for Emergency Delivery en Route to Hospital

On Monday, June 5, three members of Pleasant Prairie Fire & Rescue were awarded Unit Citations for their role in the successful delivery of a baby boy while en route to the hospital with an expectant mother on March 26, 2017. Firemedics Marshall Gontscharow, Zachary Keller, and Ronald Weavel received commendations.

As the three Firemedics were transporting the expectant mother to the hospital it became clear that they would not make it in time. The rescue squad pulled to the side of the road, where the baby was then safely delivered.

Following the presentation of the Unit Citations to the Firemedics, Larry Nelson, grandfather of the newborn baby boy, presented Pleasant Prairie Fire & Rescue with a donation to mark the occasion. Nelson donated the funds to purchase three portable toddler seats which will be placed in each of the Village's three rescue squads.

The Pleasant Prairie Fire & Rescue Department wishes to commend these three Firemedics for their professional response and to sincerely thank the Larry Nelson family for their donation of three portable toddler seats to the benefit of the community. □
